Because research in the field of juvenile sex offending has experienced tremendous change during the past ten years, a comprehensive bibliography was developed to capture this period of scholarly research as an archive for researchers and practitioners. This bibliography expands from the previous work of Smith, Craig, Loose, Brodus, and Kimmelman (2002) and Craig, Smith, Hayler, and Pardee (1999), and to focus the scope of the bibliography, only peer-reviewed research is included. Additional entries to the bibliography were compiled through conducting a comprehensive search of several on-line research databases from 2002 through March, 2007 (including but not limited to CINAHL, EBSCO, FirstSearch, LegalTrac, SECIUS, and WorldCat) and from utilizing references in existing publications. The current bibliography contains a total of 284 entries.
